AGREEMENT

- Commercial accounts represent and warrant to Cogle's Recycling, Inc. (hereby referred to as CRI) that it is the rightful owner of all materials that it sells to CRI and that all information contained on this application.
- The commercial account represents and warrants to CRI that all materials it sells to CRI are being sold as recognized recycling commodities in the market place and that all materials are of the grade, quality and quantity as represented by the commercial account at the time of sale to CRI.
- The commercial account represents and warrants to CRI that it is fully aware and knowledgeable of its legal obligation under the Scrap Material Prevention Act and is fully compliant with all requirements thereunder and as otherwise required under Pennsylvania law for the sale of the materials it sells to CRI.
